0-2. AND THE NOTES ARE ALREADY IN.

Eden Banner wrote Boom a letter. Otter brought it Tuesday morning, with the breakfast video. Last in points. The minimum, he had already said, was 45 trades.

- WAS THAT A REAL TRADE?! • AN NCT BY 1.24. CHANGE IT NOW.
- OTTER: 2-0 UPSTAIRS. CHOPPED DOWN.

WEEK 2

WAS THAT A REAL TRADE?!

The Kickers n Jigba landed Bijan. The Shiny Hineys left Atlanta. Both clubs woke up 2-0. The poll did not.

THE BLOCKBUSTER · THURSDAY, SEPT. 17

Thursday at 8:20 p.m. Boom Baum saw the Bijan deal and said it out loud. "Holy hell. Was that a real trade?!" Eleven seconds later he answered himself. "Holy shit."

The Shiny Hineys had paid $69 for Bijan Robinson at the auction, then watched him score 27.3 in a Week 1 win, 93.56 to 90.50 over Backdoor Heat. Thursday night they shipped him. The Kickers n Jigba took Bijan, Chris Olave and Zach Charbonnet. The Hineys walked back with Davante Adams, Javonte Williams, Braelon Allen and Garrett Wilson. Somebody forgot a leg. The Hineys did not. "the bot forgot the $5 FAAB Rob gave me. Really made the trade"

That afternoon the pod had already put out S05 EP03, Week 1 Dont Overreact (I'm Going to Overreact). The guest was the Guy Next Door, who had already failed the assignment on his own Week 1. On the show he said he had told himself, out loud, more than once, "I'm not going to overreact." The Bijan deal arrived after the episode. It was not his trade. It followed the title anyway.

Boom Baum to the Scott Ramsays, Sept. 18: "congrats on the catch... Now trade with me."

He's Gumby. The most durable RB I've ever seen. I'm also tired of watching Falcon games.

SHINY HINEYS · THURSDAY, SEPT. 17, 8:55 P.M.

At 9:02 the Hineys were not done. "Fading the reigning MVP is certainly a choice." Fart Toot Squeek had already said his piece, at 8:52.

it feels like your relationship with Bijan is a love/hate thing. That's the only way I can make sense of you shipping him away year after year

FART TOOT SQUEEK · TO THE SHINY HINEYS · THURSDAY, SEPT. 17, 8:52 P.M.

Boom wanted the same treatment. At 8:37 p.m. he told the Jigba, "your my new favorite to win it all." Friday afternoon he asked the Hineys, "can you give me all your good players like you did Rob?"

Sunday settled the week. The who-won poll never closed. Adams scored 36.5 from the Hineys' flex. Bijan scored 9.6 in his Jigba debut, started. Charbonnet scored 0.0 on the injured list. Olave scored 18.6. Josh Allen scored 43.82 and Jaxon Smith-Njigba scored 40.0 on the same Jigba roster. The Hineys beat Boom Baum 112.32 to 89.22. The Jigba beat the Scott Ramsays 144.62 to 76.68. Both clubs are 2-0. The Jigba leads the Premier at 324.5 points for. Sunday night the Hineys named the Boom matchup. "Your weekly pillow fight sponsored by Boom Baum and Shiny Hineys."

WEEK 2

THE NOTES ARE ALREADY IN

Boom Baum is 0-2 and last in points. He set the season's minimum at 45 trades. Otter's daughter answered on paper.

BOOM BAUM · OTTER · SEPT. 21 TO 22

Monday at 3:50 p.m., Boom Baum put a number on the season. "I just wanna say the low amount of trades this season is really impacting my mental health. I need to meet a minimum of 45 trades a season for it to be successful."

By the time Bijan changed hands, the Premier had made seven trades, and the Guy Next Door deal counts as one. Boom was in four: draft weekend with All Gold, No Glory, with the Diamond Dogs, and with Texas Tornado's Bush, then London and Sampson for Caleb and Tet. The other three were Likely for Monangai, the Waddle package, and Bijan. Then it went quiet on him. Sunday he scored 89.22 and fell to 0-2. Two weeks of points: 188.0, last. Caleb Williams started and scored 7.22. Tetairoa McMillan scored 13.6. Drake London, now next door, scored 6.9.

The pod had already spent Thursday's back half on that London deal. The Guy Next Door had made it off a Week 1 he had promised himself not to chase. Sunday did not pick a winner. For this issue, the trades stop there. Bijan. Sept. 17.

BY THE NUMBERS · BOOM BAUM

0-2. 188.0 points for, last in the Premier. Seven trades through Bijan, four of them his. Minimum 45. Gap 41. Week 2: 89.22. Caleb Williams: 7.22.

My daughter Eden wrote a very sweet, compassionate, and consoling letter to Boom Baum in light of his season starting unfortunately. Here is the letter and him reading it this morning at breakfast.

OTTER · TUESDAY, SEPT. 22, 8:35 A.M.

The letter drew eight. The breakfast video drew eleven, including the league's own loser stamp. Otter's Champeens club was 2-0, on 252.8 points, first in that flight. His knockout club was already gone. The Otter is Jackin Goff scored 62.02 in Week 2, last among the clubs still scoring, and left. The letter about an 0-2 season arrived the next morning from a franchise that was 2-0 in one league and chopped from the other.

Upstairs, Otter had started both pieces the Premier had just split. Davante Adams scored 36.5 in the flex. Bijan Robinson scored 9.6 at running back, the same 9.6 the Jigba got. Otter beat OKC Schlegstas 112.66 to 90.86. The consolation was for Boom. The week, on Otter's other roster, had already ended.

THE CATCH, AND THE ASK

Friday, Boom showed the Scott Ramsays the fish. "congrats on the catch.... Now trade with me." The Ramsays did not deal. He has four trades against a minimum of 45. The gap is 41. The notes had been on the table since Tuesday.

WEEK 2

THE YEAR THAT STARTED EARLY

Fart Toot Squeek installed 2027's kicker scoring in 2026, said the correction would flip a Champeens game, and then went to 0-2.

THE APOLOGY · MONDAY NIGHT, SEPT. 15

Change it NOW.

Straw"

Fart Toot Squeek · Monday, Sept. 15, 9:50 p.m.

Monday at 9:50 p.m., Fart Toot Squeek confessed. Eight people let it stand. On Thursday's pod he called it "the big screw up of updating the kicker scoring."

COMMISSIONER'S STATEMENT

"@everyone I regret to inform y'all that I've made a grave mistake. For those who aren't aware at our Rules Round Table at the draft weekend we voted to change the kicker scoring starting in 2027(decreasing made 40yd+ and 50yd+ FGs by 1pt). I totally forgot about the delayed onset of the rule change and implemented it this season. Y'all will see it change some scores slightly and much to my chagrin it will flip the outcome of Jerry GM and Dave Ten Haves game. I'm going to do some push ups, run 10 40s, and keep my head on a swivel so this never happens again. My deepest apologies Lana

At 10:01 Jerry GM + Jerry Owner answered, and six people stood with him. "We respect your honesty and openness in this difficult time."

The push-ups and the ten 40s were the sentence he gave himself. The season gave him the belt. Week 1 the Jigba had hung 179.86 on him. He answered Tuesday night by sending Jaylen Warren, Rashee Rice and Dallas Goedert to Backdoor Heat for Jaylen Waddle, Colston Loveland and Tyler Allgeier. Sunday, Waddle scored 18.8 in a loss. Loveland scored 0.8. Heat won 119.36 to 78.50. The champion is 0-2, on 215.4 points, one spot and 2.9 points behind the Little Bread Boi, who holds the wild card.

CHANGE IT NOW

On the Week 1 card the club was still Thomas's Terrific Team. Thursday at 10:00 p.m. the Scott Ramsays told H Town Holy Rollers they had outscored them. "I outscored youuuu". Twenty-six seconds later: "I want your name to be 'The Little Bread Boi'." Nine seconds after that: "Change it NOW".

H Town supplied the margin. "First week score - 99.54-98.3." The scores were real, and they were not a game against each other. The Scott Ramsays had beaten the Guy Next Door 99.54. H Town had lost to Texas Tornado's Bush, 98.30. The difference is 1.24. H Town put it at "<1.5 pts." Amburgers asked what the NCT was. That was the answer. Sunday the club was the Little Bread Boi.

Well, you are the LITTLE bread boi.

THE SCOTT RAMSAYS · THURSDAY, SEPT. 17, 10:18 P.M.

Cowboys September Dreams, from the side, offered the bakery its other name. "ah, a Pain de Boom." Sunday, All Gold, No Glory beat the Little Bread Boi 152.14 to 119.98, the high score of either flight. Jared Goff scored 33.78 on the Bread Boi bench. Matthew Stafford started and scored 30.48. Swapping them gets the club to 123.28. All Gold still wins by 28.86. The bench had the better quarterback. It did not have the better team. The bakery is 0-2, holds the wild card at 218.3 points for, and sits ninth by record.

DON'T OVERREACT

S05 EP03 on Thursday, guest the Guy Next Door. S05 EP04 arrived this morning: Hot Starts and Hot Sharts. A note, and no transcript.

THE LEAGUE OF RECORD · SEPT. 17, 2026 · GUEST, THE GUY NEXT DOOR

The episode's title was a pair of instructions, and the guest reached it in the opening minutes.

I said out loud to myself multiple times, I'm not going to overreact.

THE GUY NEXT DOOR · ON THE POD · SEPT. 17

He had already made the London deal. The back half of the hour walked it: Drake London and Dylan Sampson one way, Caleb Williams and Tetairoa McMillan the other. Fart Toot Squeek, hosting, used the same hour on the kicker. He called the early scoring change the big screw up. Jerry GM + Jerry Owner reviewed the show at 11:56 a.m., before the link was even up. "Episode is electric." And, of the guest: "John's brain works in a way that I'm jealous of. Incredible work on side projects for the league. The magazine and Bot are so so cool."

EP03 landed at 2:30 p.m. Bijan moved at 8:20.

The new letterhead. The Little Bread Boi is already on it.

S05 EP04 · THURSDAY, SEPT. 24, 10:00 A.M.

Hot Starts and Hot Sharts. A note, and no transcript yet. The shelf still ends at S05 EP02, Sept. 3. Fart Toot, Amburgers, and guest Kickers Njigba. The hour went at the Bijan deal, the $10 FAAB stunt, Chop waiver chaos, a quiet Premier sheet, and the Bread Bois. This issue stops the trade count on that quiet, with Bijan.

KNOCKOUT, AND THE CARD

Fart Toot Sneak had already left in Week 1, when 86.9 was the low score. Cowboys September Farts survived on 65.20, 3.18 points ahead of the club that left.

THE LANA STRAW LEDGER · Week 2, 2026 · Issue date Sept. 24. Trades in this issue stop at the Bijan deal, Sept. 17: seven Premier deals, the Guy Next Door swap counted once, four of them Boom's.
